

Jessica Pili,
Human Resources Manager,
7 years with the Group.

"From the moment I started, I was very keen on contributing to developing the OVERSEAS team. Helping them in their development is as enjoyable as it is challenging.

They require specific support in order to grow, and the managerial challenges that this brings are very exciting.

Although the team is constantly expanding and gaining new members, as a family company, we treat each person as an individual."